

BRIEF HISTORY OF THE DEPARTMENT OF BENGALI:

Iswarchandra Vidyasagar

Nathaniyal Murmu Memorial College was established in the year 2011 and since its inception Bengali has been introduced as a General Subject of study. Bengali is one of the first Department of the College to introduce Honours Course from the Academic Session 2015-2016 for considering the necessity and demand of the students of the rural area mostly belonging to backward classes and first-generation learners. Since the establishment the Department have been active constantly in serving the students. The Department is constantly engaged in encouraging students to introduce them to the rich and diverse world of Bengali literature. The faculty consists of one Assistant Professor and three State Aided College Teachers (SACT) out of whom three have obtained Ph. D Degree and qualified UGC NET/SET Examination.

After passing out from the Department of Bengali of Nathaniyal Murmu Memorial College, many students got the opportunity to take admission in M.A. regular course at Visva Bharati University, North Bengal University, Gour Banga University and other higher educational institutions and they have obtained M.A. degree from many of them have qualified UGC NET/SET Examination and some of them have got the opportunity for Ph. D registration. Many students of the Department have achieved their goal and have been providing their valuable services to the Society as State Police, Kolkata Police, Nursing Staff, CIVIC Volunteer, Bank employee, Block Development Office Staff and Political Personalities. The department has introduced a departmental wall magazine to give a platform to artists and writers.

BEST PRACTICE OF THE DEPARTMENT:

Rabindranath Tagore

- The Department of Bengali of Nathaniyal Murmu Memorial College has been organizing an educational tour in every academic session (except COVID period) for the students and faculty members of the Department to various important places like the Historical place 'BANGAR' at Gangarampur and District Museum of Dakshin Dinajpur District, Historical place 'GOUR', ADINA-PANDUA' in Malda District, 'KULIC FOREST' in Uttar Dinajpur District etc.
- Students are prepared to participate in various cultural events and competitions such as Quiz Competition, Recitation, Poetry and short story writing competition, Postering etc.
- The Department also planned to visit BOLPUR SHANTINIKETAN, MALDA DISTRICT MUSEUM, MALDA DISTRICT BOOK FAIR, JORASANKO THAKURBARI etc. places
- The Department will introduce a departmental museum. The Department will try to execute the plan in consultation with the authority.